Sir,

I have the honor to state that, as in Victoria Hospital so in the Mysore General Hospital there is a -- Resident Medical Officer, but in the latter has no particular designation and appears to me it would be well to give him the title Resident Medical Officer. Visitors and others calling at a large hospital to make enquiries invariably enquire for the Resident Medical Officer, & will be convenient if the officer who de facto holds that position in the Mysore General Hospital be so designated in future.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Smyth M.D.,
